EXPLORE LOGAN

The City of Logan teems with diversity, art, history, a hip and evolving food scene and adventure possibilities in a wild and beautiful natural environment.

Our 217 cultures have introduced customs, intriguing cuisine styles, produce and vibrancy to what is now a thriving municipality with its own unique identity. This famed melting pot has had time to settle in and get super creative; cross-pollinating across the rapidly emerging dining, cuisine and food culture landscape.

Like any contemporary city, the locals demand good coffee and gourmet food as well as authentic experiences. Local, homegrown businesses like Extraction Artisan Coffee and Blackout Coffee bring the industrial warehouse and big city design vibes to your eyes and the plate.

Small batch brewers and Tex-Mex purveyors will tickle your tastebuds; while stalwarts like all-you-can-eat Japanese barbecue Shinbashi Yakiniku, Iraqi Erbil Bakery and Sooo Sweet offer authentic food that tastes like the origins of its fascinating, multicultural owners.

The Kingston Butter Factory Cultural Precinct is amping up the creative landscape by transforming this historic location into a world-class community precinct for arts, culture and entertainment. The sweetly named Butterbox Theatre and massive outdoor stage host an annual program of music, dance, circus, theatre and community events featuring local and international artists alike.

The precinct's Living Museum of Logan showcases contemporary social history such as First Nations' stories and the local food scene in the new exhibition Nourish. Likewise Logan street culture is captured in the aptly named exhibition: Snapshot!

Logan has a strong and thriving cultural community. Learn the settler and pioneering stories in the quaint but picturesque heritage buildings across the region's mini-satellite museums such as Mayes Cottage and the Logan Village Museum.

Logan features 70% green space made up of rural and semi-rural parkland and environmental reserves. Home to an incredible diversity of native animals and plants is the city's range of natural areas including rainforests, bushland reserves, waterways and wetlands. The Logan and Albert Rivers form an integral and important part of the identity, cultural history and fabric of the city.

With more than 900 parks in which to relax, the City of Logan has seriously invested in outdoor infrastructure, with each park featuring its own style of facilities geared to different users. From skaters, BMX-ers, rollerskaters, horseriders, mountain bikers, kayakers, watersports fanatics, children with disabilities, wildlife devotees, people who love fishing, hikers - you name it, it's all on offer.

And that's just the free adventures. If you want to access some private thrills, you can book custom-designed motorcyle tours; wade with rays and sharks; go kneeboarding, wakeboarding and even wakeskating. And of course it's not just caffeine that Logan locals love the smell of in the morning; for thrills and spills adrenaline junkies can't go past Kingston Park Raceway.

Where else could you fish for breakfast; cook your catch on a barbecue in a nearby park; visit koalas; rip-up an international skate park; hear Indigenous stories in local museums; attend global markets on par with their South-East Asian equivalents; and drink 130-year old rum all a stone's throw of each other and all in the one easy day trip? Logan, that's where.

Please enjoy this comprehensive guide compiled to help you in planning your next day trip to the City of Logan. We can't wait to meet you!

WONDERFUL DISCOVERIES .....

The City of Logan has many hidden gems to explore: enter 'Middle Heaven' at Chung Tian Temple, visit koalas at Daisy Hill, hit the shops for retail therapy, relax in a country pub or be entertained at Kingston Butter Factory Cultural Precinct!

DAISY HILL CONSERVATION PARK

Beautiful walking tracks suitable for all abilities. Cyclists, walkers and horse riders share the tracks. A bonus is that the area is pet-friendly. While wildlife can be found in the bush, head to the Daisy Hill Koala Centre – located within the Daisy Hill Conservation Park to spend some 'koala-ity' time and learn about koalas.

DAISY HILL RD, DAISY HILL, 4127

DISCOVER AUTHENTIC GLOBAL FLAVOURS

Operating every Sunday from 6am – 12pm, the Global Food Market in Logan Central is a local institution – a mouth-watering showcase of many of the local diverse food cultures. In fact, many locals are stallholders; offering produce from their own market gardens not available in regular stores. If you're day tripping or heading to the market before meeting friends or relatives in the area, stop in for breakfast, with a vast array of exotic cuisine styles to choose from including South-East Asian, African and New Zealand. If you want to linger in the area, check out Little Middle East for a warm welcome and hearty Middle Eastern comfort food. When you're ready for something sweet take a deviation to Sooo Sweet in Slacks Creek for the best Mediterranean and Lebanese desserts.

SPIRITS OF THE RED SAND

Australian Tourism Awards Winner,
Spirits of the Red Sand shares
60,000 years of Aboriginal culture through storytelling. By night, the dinner show is a 'roving theatre'
experience that takes you beyond
Dreamtime to 1800s Australia.
By day groups are welcomed with educational tours, cultural awareness workshops, team building challenges and cruise-ship to shore excursions.

205 MAIN ST, BEENLEIGH, 4207

COUNTRY PUBS

The Logan Village Hotel is all about genuine country pub hospitality: homestyle food and cold draught beer on tap. Like every good community pub there are trivia nights and karaoke. If you feel like more of an outdoorsy pub experience surrounded by Jacarandas, head to the Veresdale Hotel (The 'V') one of the oldest family hotels in South East Queensland with a pet-friendly beer garden.

BEENLEIGH ARTISAN DISTILLERY

Come down to Australia's oldest registered distillery to see how quality rum is made in Queensland. Tour the iconic Big Red Distillery before tasting a selection of quality spirits. The second Friday of every month is Distillery Night, featuring live music, free twilight tours of the distillery, food and drink promotions.

142 DISTILLERY RD, EAGLEBY, 4207

KINGSTON BUTTER FACTORY CULTURAL PRECINCT

This revamped cultural precinct is where big ideas come to life with a year-round program of art and culture right in the heart of Logan. There's the Butterbox Theatre and outdoor stage, Living Museum of Logan, Logan City Historical Museum and the Devon Pixies Tea House cafe. Shop at the farmers' and twilight markets.

270 JACARANDA AVE, KINGSTON, 4114

HIT SOME TOP SHOPS

The secret to Logan retail is that the outlets represent the diversity of the region, from boutique crystal stores to open-air markets. Muse Crystals offers beautiful geological gifts like Fire Quartz and unusual items, including dandelion spheres and fertility spells. Muse has also recently opened a bath house, day spa and retreat. If you need everything in one spot, you'll find it at Logan Hyperdome with movies, food court and play area. Packed with all your favourite stores, head to Grand Plaza in Browns Plains for casual and relaxed retail therapy. Or head to charming Jimboomba Country Markets every third Saturday to take in the country air and an extended mooch. There's usually heaps of family fun and kid-friendly activities like face painting, Head to Cusack Lane and enjoy browsing Folk & Co before grabbing a bite to eat at Café on Cusack. Delish.

FOOD (VLTVRE .....

When cultural diversity combines with cuisine, you're in for a wild taste ride. The City of Logan is home to 217 cultures, bringing their version of delicious to the table: think fiery South-East Asian dishes, Middle Eastern pastries and high teas.

CAFE CULTURE VULTURES

Cafe culture is alive and well in Logan. If you want unsurpassed bean quality (roasted onsite) matched with stellar food nous in an industrial warehouse vibe, then Extraction Artisan Coffee is a must-do on any day trip. Likewise, passionate coffee roasters Simply Beans pump-out top coffee brews from an unassuming but cosy locale in Underwood. For sweet, old fashioned fare, head to Tin Cup Cafe housed in the Beenleigh Historical Village and Museum. If you want cute, rustic charm along with delicious sweet treats and hearty dishes, follow the locals to Café on Cusack in Jimboomba. Mi Casa Cafe in Underwood is a big, friendly space with surprising twists like breakfast burgers and beef croissants. At The Foxy in Loganholme, you'll see the line-up for coffee well before you see the place. It's a local hidden gem with good food too. Similarly, the Blackout Coffee and Catering crew has created a supercool vibe, including knock-out coffee, a cute space and a strong community of followers.

DISTILLERY ROAD MARKET

The South East's newest event and dining precinct (Thurs-Sun) is expanding in 2023. Outlets currently include Sugar Creek Smokehouse – serving up an authentic Aus-Tex style BBQ smoked meat experience that will blow your tastebuds. Keep your own personal international cuisine tour going by heading to Posadas Cantina for an authentic Mexican flavour flesta. Finish with coffee bliss at Aussie-owned specialty coffee company Zarraffa's concept outlet – Kiwanda Café (open 7 days).

HEAD OF THE CLASS

Slip out to Cornubia to gain new culinary skills before heading back to astound friends and family at your next dinner party. Former students rave about Rashmi's classes – in which she teaches Indian, South-East Asian and Fusion in her home-school Spice Route Cooking School in Cornubia. If sweets are more your thing, then bake with the best at Contemporary Cakes in Daisy Hill. Owner Jackie food-styled for hit films such as Bridget Jones Diary and now teaches you to make exquisite flights of fancy.

COOL LOCAL BREWERIES

Monkey Tree Brewing in

Underwood is a mecca for craft beer lovers with a liking for specialised brews free from preservatives. With 170 varieties of small-batch tipples on offer, this is boutique beer like no other. With pale ales, stouts, porters, ciders and even alcoholic ginger beer, there's something for every tastebud. Perentie Brewing Co. is coming to Distillery Road Market in 2023! Specialising in independently crafted and authentically brewed lager beers with an unmistakably Australian taste... for any session, for everyone.

SWEET TREATS

There s plenty of the sweet for sugary delights. Poppy's Chocolates is an institution, with its onsite factory and retail goodies. Try to hold yourself back from Milk Chocolate Passionfruit and White Chocolate Bark, or Rocky Road Cashew and Turkish Delight Milk Chocolate. If you're looking for traditional English scout no further than Devon Pixies, fittingly located at the Kingston Butter Factory Cultural Precinct – the perfect place for high tea. As soon massive desserts at Crunchy's (Jimboomba s all-day desserts cafe) you're going to have a sugar rush. Think big, decadent servings with all the chocolate sauce and cream. Perfect for special occasions and lazy afternoons.

FINE AND DECADENT DINING

For casual fine dining look no further than the White House of Waterford. The venue is stylish but relaxed and the cuisine is modern Australian – the perfect place for special occasions from baby showers to work celebrations. Perhaps you're craving some authentic Thai food? If so, then look no further than Thai Orchid in Springwood, where there is an abundance of quality vegetarian options and the locals swear by the crispy soft shell crab. This intimate dining option has friendly service and a low-key, comfortable vibe.

KINGSTON ROAD AND LOGAN CENTRAL

When a local foodie called Kingston Road 'Snacks Creek,' the nickname stuck. Also referred to as the 'Middle Eastern Mile' this area includes an array of Middle Eastern specialty eateries including Little Middle East and Baalbek

Lebanese restaurants as well as the famed Sooo Sweet bakery. For savoury options, Charcoal Kebab brings the meaty goodness. Need more meat with a completely different cultural twist? Try King's Footlong German Sausages. Or, if more sugar is required, hit-up Erbil Bakery (Iraqi) or Brisbane Indian Sweets and Snacks. Pacific and Kiwi cravings will be sated at Sia's Takeaway and Taua's NZ Bakehouse respectively.

SPRINGWOOD AND UNDERWOOD

Head to Manok Park for authentic Korean flavours. This local favourite has a great range of regional dishes as well as some unexpected twists. Hop Space is a snug little local with tapas and craft beer on tap: perfect for a besties night out or a simple night with your love. If you want buffet dining head to Ariala's, Springwood. Great atmosphere and dining for big groups. For another all-you-can-eat experience with a Japanese twist try Shinbashi Yakiniku. Enjoy the fun and interactive dining experience of grilling your food on a barbecue plate. A vibrant atmosphere for groups, families or a date night to remember.

FUN IN THE SUN

The City of Logan's 900 parks offer an unexpected range of activities. From the unusual, animal-themed musical instruments and digital LED poles in Darlington Parklands to fitness equipment, water play, off-leash dog areas, trails and golf courses.

PARKS AND PARKLANDS

Riverdale Park has some distinctive features including a floating gazebo over its lagoon - a great place for weddings and large groups. In complete contrast it also offers a parkour circuit. At Logan River Parklands visitors with tinnies often launch at the boat ramp or after fishing, cook their haul on one of the park barbecues! This lovely riverside area also offers a range of fitness equipment, outdoor ping pong tables and a volleyball court. There is of course an off-leash, run-around area for your furry friend which is conveniently close to the playground. Springwood Conservation Park is a fitness mecca with 36 hectares of eucalypt forest. Tree afficionados and flora buffs will love the Planchons Stringybarks - one of only few places in Queensland where they can be found. There's also a veritable colour symphony of wildflowers in bloom including golden wattle, golden candle sticks and yellow bush pea. Underwood Park features a pedal- powered monorail track, a flying fox and adventure playground. Fun for all ages the adventure playground is based on a design for a park in Berlin and includes all sorts of cute designs including monkeys, owls and birds.

Underwood Park has gazebos and off-leash facilities for your fur babies. Here, you can find the popular FUNderwood Hollow a themed children's playground along with BMX facilities and mountain bike trails for adrenaline junkies. In contrast, Stoneleigh Reserve Park is a farm-themed park inspired by Logan's rich farming history and is divided into different sections: the Farmyard, the Farmhouse (with an orchard) and the Paddock, Buxton Park in Yarrabilba has interactive digital equipment, slides, a garden tower, dog parks and wetlands. Head to Darlington Parklands for water fountains, slides, forts, fitness equipment and a 30 metre flying fox. Flagstone Adventure Park is a kids' mecca. If you want to stay in the area then the waterplay in this park is one of the city's best, free adventure playgrounds. The 11 metre high tower, tunnels and suspension bridge make every child a king. Logan Gardens' features an adventure playground, water park and fitness stations that caters for 17 types of exercise!

WETLANDS AND CONSERVATION RESERVES

The Eagleby Wetlands is known for its beautiful boardwalks that extend across a section of the wetlands enabling visitors to feel a part of the landscape. The reserve includes a series of wetlands that represent ecosystems. It has stretches of restored forest; a section of large, older indigenous trees; and shallow bodies of water with a tidal river flow that promotes mangroves. Situated alongside the Albert River, it is an important habitat for waterbirds and reptiles. In fact, more than 200 Australian bird species have been recorded in the area. Berrinba Wetlands is similarly astounding with 430,000 native plants and 100 nesting boxes for birds, possums and gliders! You can also experience 8 km of walking tracks. Plunkett Conservation Park is definitely a hidden park gem with its sandstone outcrops, eucalypts, endangered orchids, and marsupials including koalas, eastern grey kangaroos, gliders and swamp wallabies. Daily Hill Conservation Park has an extensive network of shared trails for horseriding, mountain bikes and walking. Also see koalas up close!

"Logan has over 260 bird species found in a diverse range of habitats from wetlands to woodlands. For the beginner, try two of my favourites, Eagleby Wetlands or Berrinba Wetlands!"

- Rodney Appleby, BirdLife Southern Queensland.

FAST AND (URIOUS 🗧

Logan's adventure experiences are many and varied. With outdoors in abundance and a thriving, young population the City of Logan region has its finger on the pulse of high adrenaline activities to get your heart pumping.

ACTION-PACKED

Bayside Wakepark is well-known for a reason. This family fun facility offers all kinds of watersports including kneeboarding, wakeboarding and wakeskating. There are snacks, cold beers and pre-mixes for refreshments. Kingston Park Raceway now has an entirely new fleet of Sodi SR5 Race Karts. Different levels of race experiences are available: Friday Night Challenge, Hour Endurance Challenge, and the 2 Hour Tag Team Challenge. If you want to freestyle it and hit some BMX trails, the Logan region has 12 BMX parks to choose from. In fact, Beenleigh plays host to Australia's first international-standard BMX freestyle and skate park. If you want to keep using your own muscle power to get moving then there is a huge range of recreational cycling paths elsewhere too. During your ride stop off at the work-out stations. But if more throttle is in order, EagleRider motorcycle rental and tour company design custom tours and what they describe as 'life-affirming adventures'.

MOUNTAIN BIKE RIDING

Daisy Hill Conservation Park is a world-class trail network 30 km from Brisbane that includes shared trails and designated mountain bike trails. There are family friendly tracks as well as single lane designated mountain bike trails. If you're craving a longer ride, Daisy Hill joins other Council circuits in neighbouring council parks. Plunkett Conservation Park is a scenic ride through eucalypt forests, lichen-covered boulders and wildflowers. Underwood Park includes an XC circuit, trials area, skills area, dirt pump track and BMX track. Check out Mad Max 3 and Mad Max Tech tracks.

YUM

FOR THE KIDS

Shark and Ray Gardens in Cornubia is an interactive marine aquarium for all ages. Either sit and watch or wade into the shallow water to meet rays and sharks. For something a little bit slower, when the season is right, you can pick your own fresh strawberries at Chambers Flat Strawberry Farm! Or, chow down on fresh strawberries and ice-cream from the shop. If wildlife is your thing, then head to Daisy Hill Koala Centre, where you can meet and learn about our cuddly Aussie icons. Or if you need some indoor recreation, Area 51 is Australia's largest indoor family entertainment centre with indoor play, a sports centre and recreation area.

CANOE AND KAYAK TRAILS .....

The Logan and Albert Rivers weave through the region from their source at the World Heritage-listed Gondwana Rainforests in the Border Ranges. Many routes exist for canoes and kayaks whether paddling, fishing, for family fun or hardcore exercise. The City of Logan has handy trail info with options from 20 minutes to 2 hours long. Learn about the rich history of the rivers, plants and animals through Logan River Trail interpretative signage. Significant features include saltmarshes, the Red Bridge, koalas, and 200 bird species including almost all of the Australian Raptors.

"I regularly paddle on the Logan River and like the solitude the river offers! My tip is to watch the water flow at the edge of the boat ramp and paddle out against the flow."

- Mark Sanderson, Member of the Greater Logan Paddlers Club.

MAYES COTTAGE

This historical cottage provides insight into early settler life with original furniture dating from the 1880s. John and Emily Mayes and their 2 small children, Joshua and Ruth, arrived in Brisbane from England aboard the ship Indus on 21 July 1871. This is a glimpse of early Logan living. The museum is open on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays (10.30am – 4.00pm). Great place to take a picnic.

20 MAWARRA ST. KINGSTON, 4114

LOGAN VILLAGE MUSEUM

With 4 historic buildings half of which are heritage listed, this is a glimpse into the past. The former Fettlers

Cottage displays Indigenous, settler and pioneer history. ANZAC and Camp Cable history is housed in the newest of buildings: Pioneer Hall.

There is also the Dance Hall, original to Logan Village and the Railway Hut with lots of displays to discover. Visit the Doo Drop Inn Craft Cottage for a collection of homemade items.

1-5 RIVER ST. LOGAN VILLAGE, 4207

TEMPLES

Logan s enviable cultural diversity brings with it many religions. The temples in Logan are divine spiritual hubs. The Chung Tian Temple in Priestdale is a sprawling but tranquil place where the community celebrates diversity and multi-faith harmony through Humanistic Buddhism. Tours, weddings, tea ceremonies, baby blessings, meditation, Buddhism and Chinese classes are offered. Wat Thai Buddharam (Forestdale) with its traditional ornate temple fence and clean lines mirrors traditional northern Thai temples. Meditation and managing stress classes are offered. The Sri Selva Vinayaka (Ganesha) Temple in South Maclean is a stunning Tamil temple filled with festivities, worship, processions, and cultural performances.

BEENLEIGH HISTORICAL VILLAGE AND MUSEUM

Featuring 20 historical buildings, the Beenleigh Historical Village and Museum is a bustling destination for all ages. See the old St. George Anglican Church, Beenleigh Council Chambers, Willkie's General Store, old Dodge fire engines, Loganholme One Teacher School and the Post Office. For a taste of history, book a billy tea and damper experience while you are there.

205 MAIN ST, BEENLEIGH, 4207

"Logan is full of creative talent! Spirits of the Red Sand is a world-class show not to miss and the Beenleigh Theatre Group, Phoenix Ensemble or Kingston Butterbox Theatre never disappoint!"

- Ali Strachan, President of Assorted Grains Inc.
